

12th Annual Patch Test Training Day

Friday 30th May 2025, Brisbane

| Time               | Topic                                                                                                               | Presenter                                                     |
|--------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9.00-9.25   | Registration                                                                                                 |                                                               |
| 9.25-9.30          | Welcome and house keeping                                                                                           | Dr Jennifer Cahill                                            |
| 9.30-9.50          | Making a diagnosis                                                                                                  | Dr Jennifer Cahill                                            |
| 9.50-10.00         | Case report: Pitfalls of implanted metals                                                                           | Dr Seamus Fuller                                              |
| 10.00-10.10        | Case report: ACD to povidone-iodine                                                                                 | Dr Thomas Brasher                                             |
| 10.10-10.20        | Case report: A persistent eyelid rash in a Workcover patient                                                        | Dr Seamus Fuller                                              |
| 10.20-10.40        | European Congress of Contact Dermatitis update from Dresden September 2024                                          | Dr Jennifer Cahill                                            |
| 10.40-10.50        | Discussion                                                                                                          | Team                                                          |
| 10.50-11.20 | Morning tea                                                                                                  |                                                               |
| 11.20-11.50        | Counselling patients about patch test results                                                                       | Dr Mei Tam                                                    |
| 11.50-12.05        | Case reports                                                                                                        | Dr Alexis Lara-Rivero                                         |
| 12.05-12.20        | A new epidemic in healthcare workers? ACD to diphenylguanidine in polyisoprene gloves                               | Dr Thomas Brasher                                             |
| 12.20-12.30        | Occupational urticaria                                                                                              | Dr Seamus Fuller                                              |
| 12.30-12.40        | Case report: tape allergy                                                                                           | Dr Claire Higgins                                             |
| 12.40-12.50        | Discussion                                                                                                          | Team                                                          |
| 12.50-1.50  | Lunch including patch testing demonstration and trade display                                                | Team                                                          |
| 1.50-2.10          | Patch testing pre and post metal implants: A preliminary study                                                      | Dr Selene Ting                                                |
| 2.10-2.25          | Hand eczema- data from the Skin Health Institute                                                                    | Dr Seamus Fuller                                              |
| 2.25-2.35          | Does a background of atopic dermatitis make you more likely to develop irritant reactions to benzalkonium chloride? | Dr Amreeta Kaur                                               |
| 2.35-2.45          | Case report: Allergic contact dermatitis from eyedrops                                                              | Dr Arav Kann                                                  |
| 2.45-2.55          | Case report: Topical steroid allergy                                                                                | Dr Thomas Brasher                                             |
| 2.55-3.05          | Discussion                                                                                                          | Team                                                          |
| 3.05-3.25   | Afternoon tea                                                                                                |                                                               |
| 3.25-3.35          | Allergens and series changes                                                                                        | Amanda Palmer                                                 |
| 3.35-3.45          | CABA, clinical changes and FAQ's                                                                                    | Amanda Palmer                                                 |
| 3.45-4.00          | Patch testing own samples                                                                                           | Suzette Foster, Karen Betts, Kennedy Loffler and Debbie Bryan |
| 4.00-4.15          | Patch testing practice and hands on experience                                                                      | Suzette, Karen, Kennedy and Debbie                            |
| 4.15-4.30          | Discussion, Q&amp;A session and closing                                                                      | Team                                                          |